

2023 HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP OFFER

Dear friend of the museum:

The Cokato Historical Society is starting its 2023 membership campaign. Your willingness to support our efforts with your tax-deductible donations are greatly appreciated, and keeps the Cokato Museum & Akerlund Photography Studio an innovative leader for small museums in Minnesota.

Why are we asking for your support? Since its opening in 1976, the historical society has worked in partnership with the City of Cokato to support the operation of the museum & studio. During a typical year, the society provides 20-25% of that total cost. Your tax-deductible membership dollars are used to fund a variety of these efforts, including:

Each year bring new successes and challenges. In 2023 we will engage in a number of activities that we hope will maintain our status as that leader for small museums in the state. From having free-of-charge public programming, new online content, to participating in community events like the Corn Carnival, we strive to show that just because we are in small town does not mean we are afraid to think big. And those membership dollars you provide also means we don't charge admission to the museum and Akerlund Studio, a benefit we are proud of.

Please take a moment right now to fill out the form below and return it with your tax-deductible donation for 2023. Questions? Contact us at 320-286-2427 -or- info@cokatomuseum.org.

Sincerely,
Board of Trustees
Cokato Historical Society
